

FIRST AID TRAINING

Do you have your First Aid certificate?

Do you require your staff to be trained or updated?

Did You Know:

An update of your first aid training must be carried out every 12 months to keep your certification valid.

Australasian Safety Services offers first aid training that is designed to address the specific needs of your organisation.

Included among the first aid courses are:

- Senior First Aid
- Senior First Aid re-certification
- Advanced First Aid
- Resuscitation Techniques
- Providing Basic Care
- Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR)
- Basic Life Support
- Working Safely with Hazardous Substances in the Work Place.
- Manual Handling of Casualties in the Work Place
- Semi-Auto External Defibrillation

All courses are to AQTF standards and QAS syllabus documents, and are recognised by all relevant state and commonwealth authorities.

Client Specific Training:

Australasian Safety Services can also provide customised training to meet your specific requirements. Your training can be delivered either on-site or at our venue.
